

Jean Michel Jarre Millennium Concert

Project Overview - Large structures were required for Jean Michel Jarre's performance of 'Son et Lumière' at the Pyramids at Giza for the Millennium

ES Group's Role - ES Group built a large stage and projector towers in front of the pyramids to allow a unique light show to be projected onto the pyramids

Project Title - Jean Michel Jarre Millennium Concert at the Pyramids at Giza

Client - Camus and Camus Paris

Designer - Mark Fisher

Engineers - MEPS

Location - The Pyramids at Giza, Egypt

Project Value - £800,000

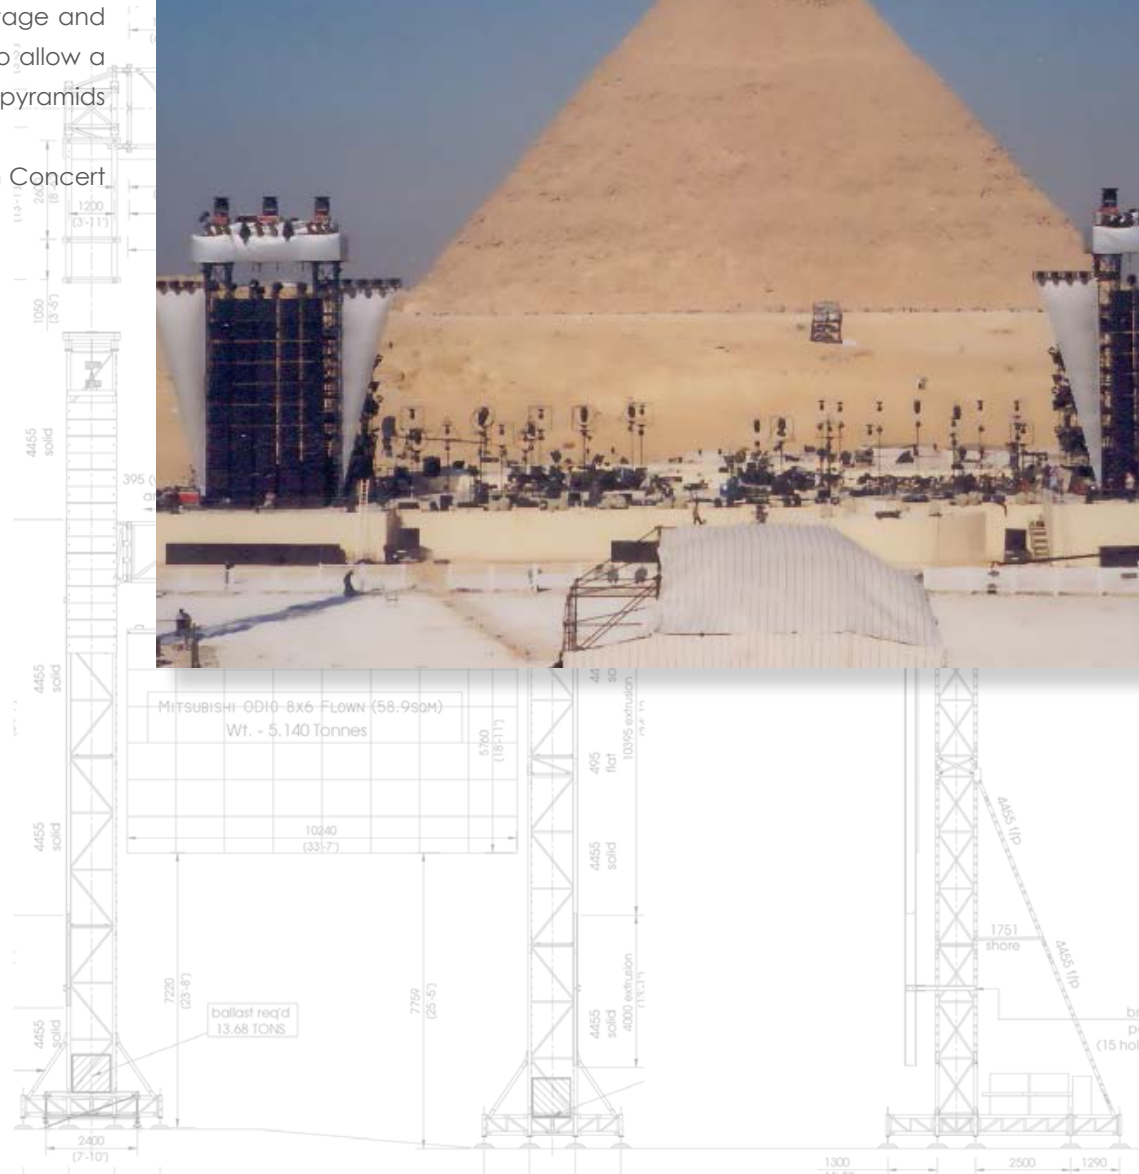

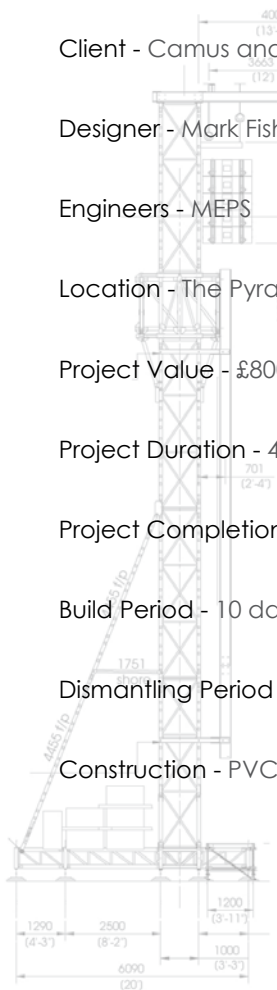

Project Duration - 4 weeks

Project Completion - December, 1999

Build Period - 10 days

Dismantling Period - 6 days

Construction - PVC, steel, aluminum truss

Jean Michel Jarre Millennium Concert

